Arbor Heights Elementary School

Volume 12, Issue 10

Upcoming Events

June 17:
Awards Assembly
Fifth Grade Graduation

June 18:
Last Day of School!
(2:10 Dismissal)

Abby, Ashleen,
Jake and Chris
Room 18, Grade 1

We went on a field trip to the beach. We are learning about caterpillars and fish. We learned about shark cartilage. Some people brought some fish and caterpillars to school. We got to look at them. We are going to look inside a fish to find the swim bladder.

What pool is no good for swimming?

A cat pool!

In this Issue:

- Jokes & Riddles!
- A camping word search
- A tree house to color
- A summertime puzzle

Nickolas and Carter Room 22, Grade 5

Nick's favorite field trip was when we went to the Art Museum, because he liked the George Washington painting.

Carter's favorite field trip was when we went to the salmon home coming.

Why did the skeleton cross the road?

It was being chased by a dog...?

Tyler and Olivia Room 13, Grade 3

Tyler: I will miss Arbor Heights the most, because I like this school very much. For this summer I'm going to Disneyland.

Olivia: I'm going to move to Olympia and go on a big vacation, including Disneyland.

Our favorite field trip was the Science Center. The most interesting thing we learned this year was doing division with a remainder.

Who stole the soap from the bathroom?

The robber duckie!

Stories, poems, articles, and great jokes from student news reporters at Arbor Heights Elementary School in Seattle, WA

Editor: Mr. Ahlness

News from the classroom.....

Brittany and Conrad
Room 19, Grade 2

We will miss our teacher, Ms. Colehour, the most, because she is so nice. We went to Alki Beach for a field trip on June 13th at low tide. Our class probably liked the BFG field trip the best, because it was so funny. The most interesting this we learned is geometry.

How do spiders swim laps?

They do the crawl!

Alex P and Alex W
Room 12, Grade 3

Alex P is not going to be doing much, but may be going to Disneyland.

Alex W will miss her class and her teacher and being in class with such good friends!

What did the egg say to the other eggs?

Get crackin'!

Josh and Kylee
Room 24, Grade 4

Josh's favorite field trip was the Pike Place Market. Our class got to bring money. Josh bought some candy and stuff. Kylee's favorite trip was when we went to the Bon Marche.

We are very sad that Mrs. Barnicle will not be back next year. See ya next year!

More classroom news.....

Tori, Lisa, & Zachary S.
Room 17, Grade 2

We will miss math and reading. Lisa is going to summer school, and Tori is going to England. Lisa's favorite field trip was the zoo, and Tori's was the Seattle Art Museum. We have been doing Cinderella stories in writing. The most interesting thing was division in math. The most interesting this in reading was reading Fantastic Mr. Fox. The most interesting thing in writing was Cinderella stories.

Why did the man throw the thermometer out the window?

He wanted to see the temperature drop!

Delaney and Ashley
Room 16, Grades 1&2

Room 16 had a potluck at Lincoln Park. We saw lots of animals that live in the sea. We visited two habitats, sandy and rocky. We also have an author of the month. His name is Roald Dahl. We will be doing puppet shows soon. We are doing lots of tests. We all think we're doing good.

If you're an adult, you have an adult knee, but if you're a kid, what do you have?

A kid-knee!

Marlys and Mackayla
Room 7, Grade 4

The thing we will miss the most about fourth grade is Ms. Sato. Second, we will miss Reggie, the class snake. Our class went on two field trips. One was to Alki Beach to see the animal life. The second field trip was the Pool Party! It was wet and awesome! In class we have been doing crayon resistant artwork. The artwork is coloring in a snake with crayons, and then painting over it. It is to say goodbye to our pet snake Reggie, because school is almost over, and we will not be in Ms. Sato's next year.

What is a baby's motto? If at first you don't succeed, cry, cry again!

SummerTime

Word List

summer vacation water swim travel
picnic camp sports games

Even more classroom news.....

Jasmine and Elyssa
Room 21, Grade 5

In our classroom we are reading this book called Snow Treasure. It's about World War II when the Germans attacked, and they want to steal the gold.

And that's it, but everyone in our classroom is excited about the 5th grade graduation. Some of our class also went on a field trip to Wild Waves. Jasmine will miss the fun activities and the teacher.

How can you spot a dog-wood tree?
Because of its bark!

Seth
Room 15, Grades 1&2

I will miss my friends. For the summer I'm going to California and Canada. I'm moving to Olympia. My favorite field trip was the zoo, because I liked the animals.

Where do you go when you don't want to die?

The living room!

Emilie, Chase, and Danuelle
Room 23, Grades 3, 4, & 5

We are going to Ms. Hughes' house for an end-of-the-year party. We will swim, eat pizza, and have root beer floats. We can hardly wait!

We are going to miss our friends. Some of us are taking trips this summer, and some are going to camp. Whatever we do, we want to have fun.

Everyone in our class completed a math and spelling book. We also learned a lot about plants and bees. Only three more days of school. Hooray!

Knock, knock
Who's there?
Boo
Boo who?
Don't cry, it's just a joke!
