

Jr. Seahawk Newsletter

November, 2010

Arbor Heights Elementary School

Volume 20, Issue 3

The oldest continuously published elementary school student newspaper on the Internet!

Read it online at <http://jrseahawk.com>

Upcoming Events

Nov. 22-26:

NO SCHOOL

Parent/Teacher Conferences and Thanksgiving Break

Dec. 9:

Pacific Science Center Science on Wheels Van

Dec 20-Dec 31:

NO SCHOOL

Winter Break

Morigon and Chloe Room 1, Grades 4&5

Morigon: I am thankful for my teacher. I get to pick a friend to come over for Thanksgiving. I'm going to have turkey, mashed potatoes, jo jo's, spaghetti, and chicken.

Chloe: I'm thankful for my teacher. I'm having turkey for Thanksgiving.

Who is not hungry at Thanksgiving?

Inside:

- Thankful Classroom News
- Riddles you know the answers to ... ?

Max and Sandy Room 13, Grade 2

We went to PNB to do our performance. We had fun. We had fun watching students. We just started science yesterday. It was fun! We learned about point of balance. We know lots about DOL! We changed seats, and that was fun! We have 2 new students!

Why did the mom turkey tell a joke to her eggs?

She wanted to crack them up!

Arabella and Hannah Room 12, Grade 3

We are thankful for our families. Mr. Ahlness is thankful for his students.

Arabella is moving to Montana this month, on the fourth week! She is going to miss her friends. Hannah is a great friend. Arabella's dad left a few days ago to take home some stuff. He'll come back, though.

Hannah's aunt came on Thursday. Hannah got a new desk. She likes her new desk. We made some pinch pots.

Why can't you take a turkey to church?
Because it uses such fowl language!

Everyone Room 3, Kindergarten

We are learning how to read. We are learning different shapes. We are learning numbers. We have big buddies. We like them.

Stories, poems, articles, and great jokes from student news reporters at Arbor Heights Elementary School in Seattle, WA
www.arborheights.com Editor: Mr. Ahlness

News from the classroom.....

Ruby and Steph Room 25, Grade 4

Ms. Sato's class has hung up their flying turkey book reports. You can see them upstairs. They are really cool. We are thankful for Ms. Sato teaching us stuff. Ruby's birthday is coming up. It's November 27. She is turning 10. Steph is thankful for the remodel at her house. Ms. Sato is thankful for an awesome class. She said so herself. Ruby is thankful for piano.

Our class went on a field trip to Mercer Slough. Ms. Boitano's class went too! There were four groups: Ospreys, Herons, Kingfishers, and Pintails. Steph was in the Ospreys. Ruby was in the Herons. Steph's group saw a salamander! We found bullfrog tadpoles. Mercer Slough is in Bellevue.

Why didn't the turkey want dessert?

Fatuma and Emily Room 22, Grade 5

Emily: I am thankful for my family and all the things they have done for me. And of course I'm thankful for everyone who was nice to me.

Fatuma: I'm thankful for my family, friends, and for going back to my favorite school, Arbor Heights!

Why did the turkey play drums in

He already had the drumsticks!

Kyra and Audrey Room 9, Grade 3

We are thankful for a nice dinner, and a roof over our heads. We are thankful for good homes. Mr. A is thankful for the wonderful kids in Room 9 and 12.

Who is not hungry at Thanksgiving?

Daisy, Charlie, Siobhan, and Jake Room 21, Grade 4

Happy Thanksgiving! Our class is thankful for friends, family, good things, video games, pets, students (Ms. Boitano), books, Christmas, food, and money.

We went on a field trip to Mercer Slough. We learned a lot about producers (plants), herbivores, carnivores, and scavengers.

Exclusive Interview with Dr. Coram!!!!

Dr. Coram was born in New York, and she moved to Washington 15 years ago when she married her husband, because he lived here.

She started running at a very young age. She realized she was excellent at it, and she had amazing speed. She started running when she was 8.

Dr. Coram met Wilma Rudolph when she was in high school. Wilma came to her track practice to coach Dr. Coram's team for a week.

Before she was a principal, she taught Phys. Ed. One summer she volunteered to teach hospital patients how to swim. After that she continued her swimming career.

While she was teaching her boss was Mr. Cropsey. He was the assistant principal. He inspired Dr. Coram to become a principal.

She normally dresses for the holidays. She always wears her Army uniform for Veterans' Day.

Fun Fact: Did you know that Dr. Coram was in the army?