Remember the Science Fair on Feb 26th!

Joe and Laura
Room 24, Grade 5

What we have been doing in our class is, well, we got a new computer in our class. We just started fractions. Everyone is getting ready for the Science Fair. We are going to have a Valentine's party on Thursday. Then we have Winter Break.

Kaitlin and Hannah
Room 15, Grades 2 & 3

We are excited for the Science Fair. Hannah and Courtney are doing frogs. Kaitlin and Heather are doing dogs. We are having a Valentine's Day Party on February 12th.

We learned a song about Abraham Lincoln. There's a book about him in our class called Abe Lincoln's Hat. He lived in a log cabin. We made a paper that shows what it was like for Abe then and what it's like for us now. You can look at the glass case during Presidents' Week to find out more about Lincoln. You'll find out about his food, clothes, house, play, dangers, school, and travel. Did you know that Abe Lincoln kept all his letters in his hat?

Why did the heart go home?
Because he wanted to be a Valentine.

Room 4, Kindergarten

I liked the Uwajimaya store and the cool toys in the store. I like to make Valentines for other people. My class is having a Valentine's party on February 12, 1998. I like to jump rope at Arbor Heights. I like to play with the Lincoln chains.

What do chickens do in the summer?
Go to the Seattle Center...?

We're making Valentine envelopes for our Valentine party. We went on a field trip to Chinatown. We went to a restaurant for lunch there, and we also went to a store. And then we went to the playground. We went down the slide and on the spinning thing. We were making snowflakes. It's almost my friend's birthday.

Taylor and Lencho
Room 22, Grade 4

Last week we saw a mime. Taylor thought it was good. On February 19th we are going to the Aquarium. We can't wait! Lately we have been learning about meters, centimeters, millimeters, feet, inches, and yards and estimating. For the Science Fair Taylor is doing a report on her guinea pigs.

We're learning about symmetry and electricity. What Lencho and Kyle are doing for a science project is they are transforming electric energy into magnetic energy. We are going to the Aquarium.

Alex and Rachel Room 16, Grades 1,2,&3

In Room 16 we are getting ready for the Science Fair. We are growing crystals and studying seeds. In math time I don't think you could imagine how hard Mr. F.'s math problems are! He gives us some like this:

How many quarters are in 10,000 pennies? Or like this:

1	3	3	5	4
5	6	8	7
4	3	5	2	1

What goes in the empty space? Ask in Room 16 for help!

Molly Room 7, Grade 4

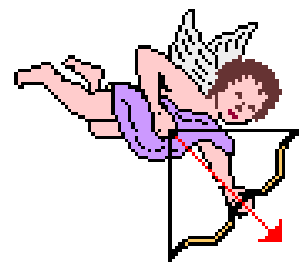

Last week a mime came to school. We are going on a field trip to the Seattle Aquarium. We are doing long division in class. In April we are going to "Pink and Say". It's about friendship during the Civil War. A couple of days ago some of us changed desks. Yesterday in computer lab we played a game called 5-A-Day-Adventures.

Makaila and Courtney Room 18, Grade 2

We made Chinese theater masks with tinfoil. We made Valentine envelopes. We are doing story problems. We started a new book called Make A Splash. For the Science Fair we will be doing our egg drop.

What did the snake give his girlfriend on their first date?
A good night hiss!

Our author of the month is Patricia Polacco. She has written the books My Rotten Red Headed Older Brother, The Bee Tree, and we are going to do a play of Really Rosie. We like the month of February because we like Valentine's Day.

What do groundhogs have that no other animal has?
Baby groundhogs!

Heather and Corey Room 12, Grade 3

Last Friday we went to the International District for a field trip. The Science Fair is coming up. Heather is doing one with Kara and Jessica. Corey hasn't decided yet. It's going to be great. We just recently had an assembly. It was a mime. She was very funny. We liked her a lot.

Moira and Jessie Room 19, Grade 1

We are making pictures of George Washington and Abe Lincoln. We decorated our Valentine folders. Our classroom went to the museum of flight. We watched a video there. In our classroom we are going to give out Valentines on Valentine's Day.

What did the boy octopus say to the girl octopus?
I want to hold your hand, hand, hand, hand, hand, hand, hand, hand!
