The First Thanksgiving

by Doran

The first Thanksgiving was at Plymouth Plantation, Massachusetts in 1621. Pilgrims invited the Indians who had helped them learn to plant corn to a feast.

There were about ninety Indians and fifty Pilgrims. For three days they thanked God, ate, danced and sang, and played games.

Inside this Month...

You will find reports from our wonderful classroom news reporters. You might even find some pretty funny turkey jokes! Look for the turkey picture:

Lucy & Cameron Room 1, Grade 1

Our classroom is thankful for our teacher, each other, our nice principal, Mr. Wilkie, Mr. Warford, Mrs. Keegan, all the teachers, a nice classroom, Bonny, our window being fixed, lunchroom helpers, and our parents.

Our class had fun at home in the snow. We wrote things we're thankful for on turkey feathers. We wrote about the 5 food groups and voted on our food group favorites.

Why did the turkey run away from the farmer?
He wanted to keep his wishbone!

Holly

Room 3, Kindergarten

Room 3 is thankful for corn, water, sunshine, the world, trees, friends, family, being ourselves, reading books, flowers, presents, beds, houses, food, and moms and dads.

We have been working on Thanksgiving songs, turkey masks, turkey books, and Indian vests.

What do turkeys like to chew?

Gobble Gum!

Adam & Jed Room 7, Grade 4

Our classroom is thankful for families, food, recess, school, shelter, teachers, pets, learning, friends, and Ms. Sato and all the others teachers in Arbor Heights.

We just started multiplication, and we're learning about the Pilgrims, Puritans, Iriquois, and Quakers in Social Studies.

What goes "gobble, gobble, ha-ha-ha, plop"?

A turkey laughing his head off!

Ashley & Travis Room 8, Grade 4

I'm thankful for God. I'm thankful for my family.

We are learning about mountains that have erupted, like Mt. St. Helens. We are mostly learning about Mt. St. Helens.

Why did the turkey cross the road?
To show he wasn't chicken!

Why did the turkey cross the road?
Because he was strapped to the chicken!

Jessica & Andy Room 9, Grade 3

Our classroom is thankful for our teacher, because sometimes we get to go outside. Sometimes we get treats for being good.

In our classroom we have three computers, but only two of them work. Then when we had a substitute named Mr. Randall, one kids somehow got all of them working!

Justin and Sesen Room 12, Grade 3

What our class is thankful for is our teacher, wildlife, birthday parties, and our school.

We had people come to our classroom. They were from California. We are making turkeys.

Why do turkeys go "gobble, gobble"?
Because they never learned good table manners!

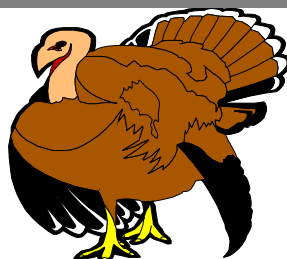

Demario & Hannah Room 14, Grade 2

Our classroom is thankful for loving families, supplies to go to school, the beauty of the world, custodians who keep classrooms clean, food to eat, caring people, helpful schools, money to buy our houses, being on this earth, parents to give us clothes and toys, our caring teachers, and stores.

We've been making clay leaves, and we are going to do a turkey play about a turkey named Tommy Turkey. We're learning how to make the biggest number.

Why did the turkey cross the road?
He thought he was a chicken!

Lauren & Courtney Room 15, Grades 2 & 3

I'm thankful for my family - Courtney.
I'm thankful for my mom and dad and my brother - Lauren

Our classroom is studying spiders. Some spiders have up to six or eight or twelve eyes. Frogs cost $3.00 a week to feed. Our class has a fresh new garden. My aunt is going to have a baby. In December we are going to see a play. In December we are going to study rocks.

Why did the turkey cross the road?
It was the chicken's day off!

Evelyn & Kevin Room 17, grades 1 & 2

Our classroom is thankful for our parents.

We went on a field trip to see Pinocchio at the Seattle Children's Theater. It was very good. We had fun.

Why did the turkey cross the road?

Because he wanted to get to the other side!
